SFTE President Office Hours

07:00 PM - 08:00 PM GMT

Jen Uchida,

president@sfte.org

Hey there, Flight Testers!

I am excited to be offering you monthly Office Hours. My goal is to be able to address any questions or concerns you might have or take suggestions for improvements to our society or just to say hi. Generally, expect to see these on the third Friday of every month and the time will change to accommodate the different time zones of our membership. I'll pick different topics or bring in guests and am always open to suggestions. You can reach out via social media (Facebook, LinkedIn, Instagram) or email. Please see below for some ROE and the Zoom dial in info specific to each month. Each session will be recorded and posted here.

ETTC 2024 European Test and Telemetry Conference 2024

Nuremberg Convention Center

09:00 AM - 06:00 PM CET

Renaud Urli, +49 15117125901

renaud.urli@airbus.com

The European Test and Telemetry Conference (ETTC) is a leading international event for professionals, experts, researchers, and students from the fields of testing, instrumentation, and telemetry from all transport sectors (air, ground, space, and maritime).

Testing is essential for ensuring the safety, reliability, and performance of future transportation systems in various environments. These environments pose significant challenges for test systems, including size, weight, energy demand, and signal efficiency. The overall increasing challenge for any system is the reduction of the environmental footprint.
